

Students Transfer Policy

of the Journalism and Mass Communications Department

Minimal Requirements

This policy imposes the minimal requirement for the transfer to the Journalism and Mass Communications Department. Only if a student meets these requirements can she/he apply for to transfer to the Journalism and Mass Communications Department.

Students successfully transferring to the JMC Department will:

1. Have a GPA 3.2 or higher.
2. Have a TOEFL score equal to or higher than 480 (institutional TOEFL accepted).
3. Have taken the following JMC courses with a grade of B or higher:
 - for those transferring to second year:
Intro to Mass Communication and one (1) more mandatory course
 - for those transferring to third year:
Intro to Mass Communication and three (3) more mandatory courses

Application and assessment procedure

JMC Department accepts transfer applications once a year. The deadline for applications is the end of the Spring semester. Student should write the transfer exam (written exam - essay). The results will be announced within five days after the exam.