

Minor in __Psychology_____

Psychological science is a human nature studies. It studies mind, behavior, and relationship between them. To study Psychology means to seek to understand how humans and other organisms think, learn, perceive, feel, act, interact with others and even understand themselves. Also, we could tell that Psychology is a both natural and social science. You may apply your skills in different scopes: consuming decisions, making researches, human resource management, industrial and organizational behavior, human factors engineering, advertising, marketing and Public Relations

For applying to Minor in Psychology the GPA 2.7 is required (general university requirement for minors)

#	List of courses	Credits
Required (18 cr)
1.	Introductory Psychology (for non-psychologists)	6
2.	History of Psychology	6
3.	Anatomy and Physiology of Central Nervous System	6
Two of the following courses are required (12 cr)
4.	Cognitive Psychology	6
5.	Psychological Tests	6
6.	Developmental Psychology	6
7.	Social Psychology	6
8.	Psychology of Personality	6
9.	Abnormal Psychology	6
10.	Introduction to Organizational/Industrial Psychology
Electives (12 credits of any PSY electives)
11.		6
12.		6
	Total	42

Type of Final Exam (oral/written, comprehensive etc.) NONE

Courses to be included in the final exam: NONE

For graduation with Minor in Psychology all the grades for these courses should be B- and higher.